Fact sheet 2022/2023

General Information

The Pädagogische Hochschule Kärnten – Viktor Frankl Hochschule (University College of Teacher Education Carinthia) founded in 2007, is a comprehensive educational center for teachers of all school types in training and further education. It is divided into the following organizational units: primary education, subject-specific science/didactics at secondary level, vocational education, school development, and multilingualism and intercultural education. Moreover, the UCTE is guided by Viktor Frankl's philosophy and makes it fruitful for pedagogy. The focus is on the human being in its physical, psychological, social and spiritual dimensions.

The University College of Teacher Education Carinthia offers for Erasmus+ students an International Study Programme in Education in English language, which includes the following five modules:

- Intercultural Encounter
- Cultural Studies
- Educational Sciences
- Teacher Competencies
- Teaching Practice – primary and secondary school.

For German-speaking Incomings (at least Level B2), there is the possibility to attend also regular courses.

Office for International Affairs

At the beginning of each semester, the International Office offers an Introduction Week to incoming students, which includes:

- Getting to know the facilities of UCTE (access to library, PH Online, institutions, etc.)
- Excursions in and around Klagenfurt (nature and culture)

The International Office invites to several trips, events and get togethers like theater, cinema, hiking etc. German lessons for beginners and intermediate and conversation lectures in German are offered to incoming Erasmus+ students. Incoming students have the possibility to do a teaching practice in a primary and/ or secondary school.

A Buddy Service aims to make it easier for newly arrived international students to settle into life in Klagenfurt. The buddy is the contact person and accompanies the incoming students in their everyday student life during the entire semester.
